ME, MYSELF,

AN INDIVIDUAL

STRIVING TO BE HAPPY!

THE ART OF LIVING

To look ahead with bright new hopes
To every new tomorrow
To revel in another's joy
And share another's sorrow
To be enthused with life itself
And each new undertaking
To keep a happy dream of two
Always in the making
To love the beauty of the spring
And every passing season
To laugh at nothing now and then
For no apparent reason
To cherish friends and family ties
To know the joy of giving
And to keep a song within your heart . . .
This is the art of living

YOUTH

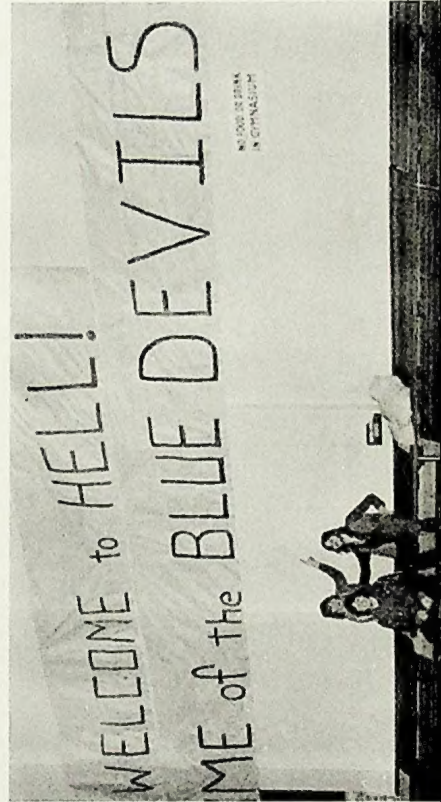

Youth will be the unforgettable experience, the wheel that sets your course for a lifetime . . .

Your youth may seem a small portion of life to live, but in your golden years the reflections and echos will never fade away.

Peter Deys

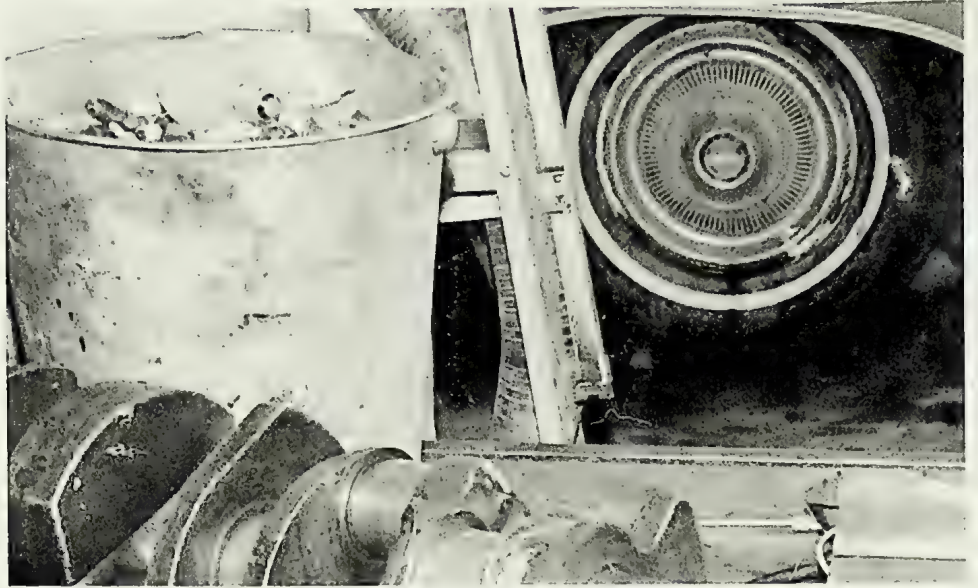

A warm summer breeze slipping softly through the open window, gently caressing our minds. The faint, happy voices of young children skipping home for lunch. We sit structured, yet oblivious to the scratching of chalk and murmur of the entity above us. Physically in the classroom, but our hearts dreaming of the long cool, green lawn that lives just outside the window. Our friends and warm sunshine, happiness and love.

BEAUTY IS MY IDEAL

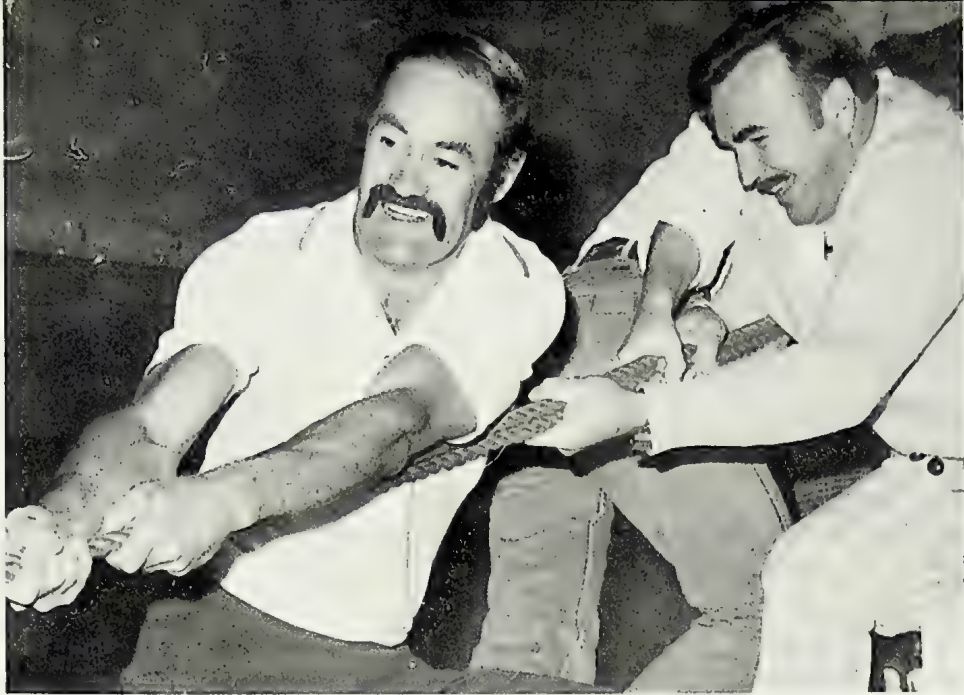

PERFECTION IS MY DESTINY

School symbolizes destiny and an aim. It is the beginning of a dictionary, the first stage of knowledge.

STAFF?!

This year, our Students' Union has tried to bring a new, exciting and unique spirit to the school. We've tried to make participation and cooperation work hand in hand. Our aim was to represent the student body and to make our school warm and friendly. Activities like our Peanut Butter and Jam Invitational brought us headlines in the Edmonton Journal. All in all, we discovered our job to be most challenging.

DOOR DECORATING CONTEST WINNERS

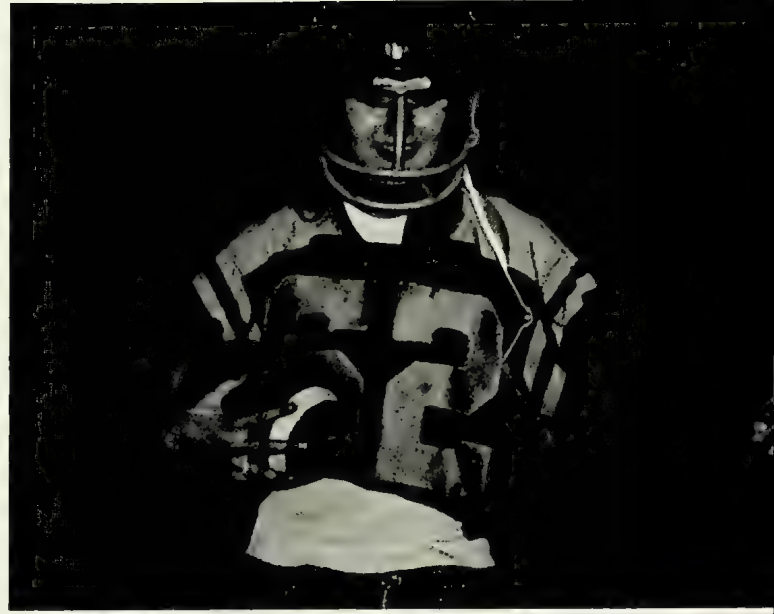

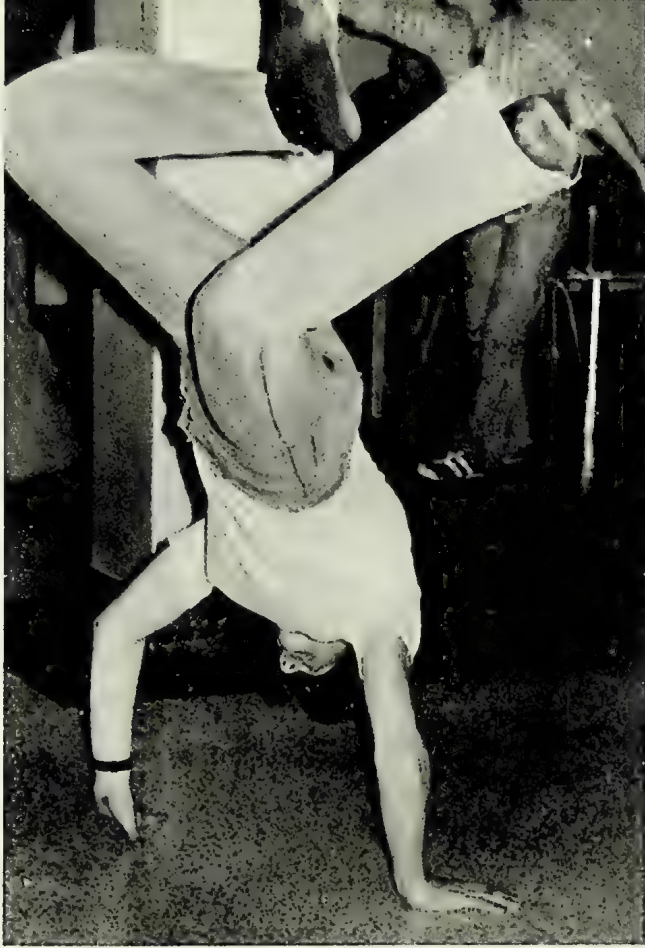

We all dream of great deeds and high positions - away from the pettiness and humdrum of ordinary life. Yet success is not occupying a lofty place or doing conspicuous work, it is being the best that is you.

Dream, aspire by all means, but do not ruin the life you must lead by dreaming pipe dreams of the one you would like to lead. Make the most of what you have and are. Do the thing near at hand, and great things will come to your hands to be done. If you can't be a highway, then just be a trail. If you can't be the sun, be a star . . . it isn't by size that you win or fail.

Be the best of whatever you are.

SOCIAL BOARD

ENJOYING LIFE

OF A FRIEND I SAY

A friend is someone with whom you can share your thoughts, seeking his understanding, without fear of his walking away in condemnation . . . A friend is someone with whom you can be naked in body, seeking his harmony, without fear of ridicule or rejection.

A friend is someone you can lie next to, seeking his warmth, and hold without fear of his attitude toward your intentions.

A friend is someone with whom you can plan time to share without fear of his indifference. A friend is someone in truth a human being. There is no fear . . . your life which is precious is shared, seeking peace.

ME AND AGE

Old man, I see your dreams, as memories of what could never be.
Old man, I see your pains, wants loves, sorrows tears. But least of all I see your death, until you've died and you've gone. With you goes a lifetime of memories and experiences.

But as you know, I'm young and there's so much to do in so little time.
I find it hard to realize that you have gone through everything I have, old man.
You know, you have, time passes.
Good by old man, there is life in death.

FIRST RUN

The hill beckons as the sun silhouettes the lone figure
 The snow glistening, the wind icy.
 Suddenly there is motion -
 The figure is moving; the snow exploding and engulfing its every move.
 Then again there is peace.
 Only a line across the snow remembers the figure.

FEATHERS

Starting high, the feathers danced.
 Lightly and excitedly they flew through the air.
 And the mornings they found to be of sheer delight,
 Each a new experience.
 Some white, others black; but they flew together. Free and easy.
 Encountering new things and meeting new friends along the way.
 Finally, reaching their destination, never forgetting.
 Touching down to earth, the feathers were friends.

THE PRISONER

Jailed
in a prison of straight trees,
the sun seeks to pierce the air, the trees,
but fails.
Time after time it moves jugitively
but is still trapped.
The clear, fleeting stream of light is seen but mocked
in shadows, shadows that whisper of the sun's fate.

SWIFT WATER

Dark wings appear against the moon
as we silently paddle on,
followed by the haunting cry of the loon.
As the sun soon awakens us to the dawn.
Rounding each passing bend
Marveled with each wonderful sight
We can foresee no end
As we stroke, stroke with all our might.
Swift currents try to push us to and fro
We do not succumb
but struggle onwards to our goal
As the ice water makes our hands numb.
For we are Athabasca bound
Now not too far away,
ever quiet without a sound
And probably reach our goal this very day.

THE MIRROR

Wrinkled, Tiny and Almost Perfect.
Was that how I first started out?
Graduating to coloured crayons
and from there to school.
On the first day, loneliness and tears fill twelve years later
there were tears again,
but no loneliness.
Passing on to higher things
and never regretting any of them.
Will she be like that?
Wanting to travel,
and to learn and to be happy?
Or will she want
to stay at home and work
or take more schooling?
Maybe she'll slip off -
Cut her ties with home,
leaving everything behind and do something completely different.
And, when she gets older,
so old that friends die around her
She won't be too proud to return home,
The way I did.
I hope so.
She has my name.

RUNAWAYS

Excitement laughter,
smothered the fear.
One hour kings,
we dared the streets
slunk through the dark, challenged our conscience.

Gravel, spewed
in our wake,
clattered on tin cans.
Old men, who looked on wondered,
what was wrong,
with kids,
today.

From nowhere,
a car, lurching,
blocked our path.
Lights
Fear
Panic.

We poured out,
lost souls,
uselessly trying
to escape,
Lucifer's claim.

We laughed,
at crying parents,
and reproving
old men.

Now,
I too,
Shake my head.

WINNING

The pride is what's important;
Like a mole on your wrist
It will never be lost,
You can change a jersey
But never a thought;
For ending on top
Is what least counts
When you can loose well
Winning has no sense.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

This year's Senior Football Team displayed qualities characteristic of all championship teams: talent, spirit, desire and unity. All too often we were considered favourites to lose. But, the Blue Devils believe in themselves! Not only did the team win the Canadian Progress Club Trophy but for the first time in several years an Eastglen student, Dave Zukiwsky, was voted by other players in the league to be the most valuable player. We lost only one game all year (to Salisbury), defeated Austin O'Brien in the semi-finals and avenged the earlier loss to Salisbury by overwhelming them 50-27 in the City Final Game. This year's Senior Football Team can be proud to wear their championship jackets.

SWIM TEAM

The main point to note in Eastglen's 1975-76 involvement in swimming is that club membership was down while individual performance was up. All swimmers who seriously contributed time and effort to the club improved their competition stroke techniques as well as their conditioning, their speed and hence their times. Brian Sullivan and Mr. Trenchard were extremely helpful in their coaching, and were of great help to team members in their training.

We shall continue to strive for excellent individual and group quality of performance rather than for large numbers of participants in the final meet.

Coach Trenchard

WATER POLO

This year Eastglen water polo enthusiasts played with the Eastglen Community Junior League Water Polo Club and in the High School (only) Water Polo League.

The Junior League team won the city Junior League title, while in the High School W. P. L. Eastglen convincingly won the league but lost the final game of the play-offs to Ross Sheppard. Such high standings in the league demonstrate that Eastglen's water polo players were able to stick together as a team and to participate in a sustained water polo program.

Gary Whetstone was the team coach and Mr. Trenchard was team teacher-sponsor. Sandy Gilchrist, Eastglen's leading girl swimmer, also helped the water polo team by performing the essential duties of timer and recorder. Members of the team: Kevin Lillijord, Randy Shakura, Harold Trenchard, Bob Ross, Gordon Baziuk, Fred Coffey, David Mellec, Eric Johnson, Harl Hawley.

TRACK AND FIELD

DRAMA

The Arts are always an important part of school life and in Eastglen, drama has been the most prominent of the Arts. Eastglen's drama department, although not as active as in recent years, has made a fine showing this year. At Christmas time they were actively involved in the Christmas Lit. In the spring, they put forth the year play, a marvellously well-produced version of "You Can't Take It With You", by Moss Hart and George Kaufman.

LEARNING!

PERSONALLY, I AM ALWAYS READY TO LEARN,
ALTHOUGH I DO NOT ALWAYS LIKE BEING TAUGHT.
— WINSTON CHURCHILL

True education means more than the pursuit of a certain course of study. It means more than a preparation for the life that now is. It has to do with the whole being and with the whole period of existence possible to man. It is the harmonious development of the physical, the mental, and the spiritual powers.

RENOVATIONS

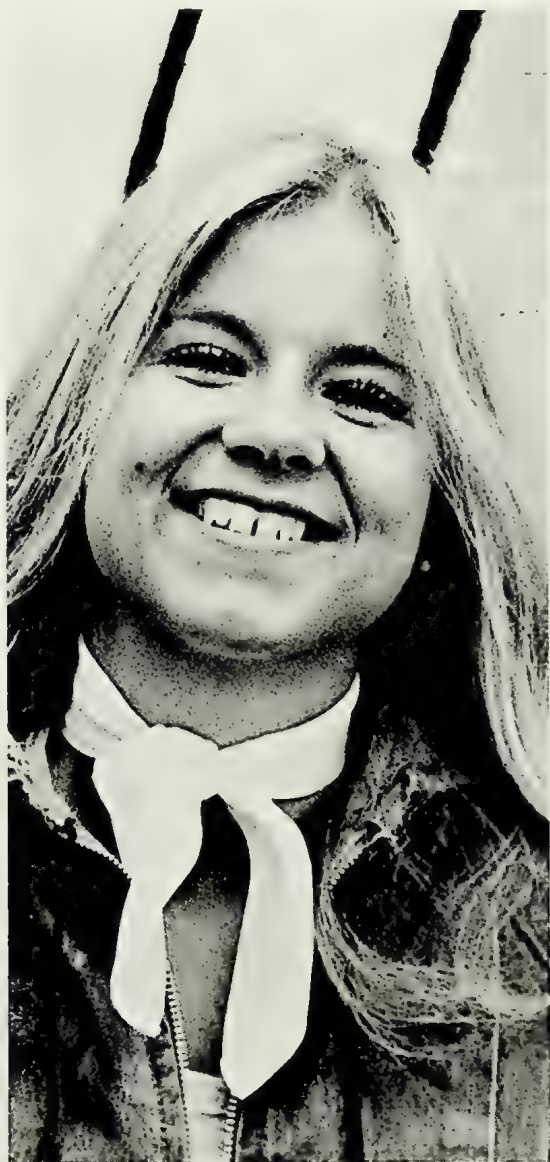

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The people who contributed most to our lives and the well being of our country have been the individualists - the unique characters. What Canada can use - or in fact needs desperately - is more individualists, more characters in every level of endeavor. LOOK OUT CANADA! EASTGLEN HAS SOME.

A. W. Holmes

STUDENT UNION PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Another year, another stepping stone on your road of life completed. To look back would bring tears, chuckles, smiles and frowns. The highlights of this year? They are in the pages of this book. As you look through the pages in the years to come it will remind you of many things - your friends and your teachers, your hopes and your accomplishments, the good times and the bad times. I hope '75-'76 holds a special page in the book of your memories.

Thank you all for the support given to the Student Council in our many endeavours. It was a fulfilling and at times, thanks to Lloyd Meyers, a trying experience holding the position of S. U. P. I enjoyed the experience of being on Student's Council as I am sure the rest of council did.

Recall and remember these carefree days, linger on them for a moment . . . then wipe the tear away and look ahead . . . you've just begun to live.

GRAD CLASS PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Grad is a time in our life that each and everyone of us looks forward to. It's something very special from the time we learn the word "Graduation". It marks the completion of our twelve years of school. It is not only leaving our proud Eastglen, but it's leaving our second home.

To the few who participated in the long hours of planning and preparing our Grad, which led to losing sleep, missing classes, cramming, depression, encountering frustration and tears, it only made our Grad all the more special. As a Grad Class Committee, we strived for perfection and did our very best to make our Graduation a smashing success. We only hope our efforts were worthwhile and appreciated by not only our Grads, but by our parents and teachers as well.

Now that we have tackled the hard work and tasted the pleasure of success we can smile and feel proud to have been "Part of it All".

On behalf of the Grad Class Committee, we hope you found happiness and joy at your very own Graduation Night.

May your memories of Eastglen never fade but linger on forever in the depths of your mind.

I wish each and every one of you continuous happiness, love, and success in whatever you may choose to do!
Luba Eshenko

HONORARY GRAD CLASS PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As Honorary Grad Class President my task is to give advice and a few words of wisdom to our graduates. Seeking inspiration for this task I came across a quote by a man by the name of James Gould Cozen.

"When you can, always advise people to do what they really want to do, so long as it isn't dangerously unlawful, stupidly unsocial or obviously impossible. Doing what they want to do, they may succeed, doing what they don't want to they won't."

With this in mind my advice follows. I have found the greatest amount of satisfaction working with students doing things we both liked to do and put a lot of work into. In this work I have come across four categories of students.

One of these categories - I label the Academic, This is the student who pursues their courses with deep interest and hard work. For him, memories of Eastglen may be tied up in the success and knowledge they have gained in the classroom.

Other of our students fall under the label of the Athlete. These have put their most energy and conviction into the field of sport and to them Eastglen will be memories of training, triumph and models in life from coaches.

A third group of students at Eastglen might be labelled Service to their Fellow Man. These people have put most of their energies into providing events and benefits for their fellow students and for them memories of Eastglen will be of successful events and a feeling of appreciation from their fellow students.

A fourth group of students are categorized as Rotunda 30. Some of these students have found their deepest memories coming from recreational classes of social activities - areas which they personally put a lot of energy and hard work into. For these people their memories will be of friends and activities.

What can I give as advice to these very different people? Simply this. As all of you have Eastglen you use those activities to which you have committed yourself most deeply and from which you have gained the fondest memories and have done the hardest work - to serve as the models for your life. Nothing is enjoyed unless it is done well and nothing is done well without a lot of work.

You know what you can do well, you know you get the most satisfaction for that which you have put a lot of work into. Therefore chose a life in line with your interests and abilities, commit yourself to your endeavors and make your parents, teachers and most importantly, yourselves proud.

Thank You
Earl Parmenter

CLASS HISTORY

History - a subject that you might take in high school; and what a high school we have. Now, looking back on three unforgettable years, all we can simply remember, everything is merely a memory. We'll never be able to go back; we can't relive the times, nor can we change or erase them. We can simply remember what we choose to and possibly try to forget the rest, but it's our past and it will always be there.

There are many times I'd like to reminisce with you, but although we shared all these times as a group, I'm sure there are many personal memories that you, yourself, will never forget.

Do you remember back in 1973 when we were all rookies at Eastglen? The best Grade X class to hit Eastglen, let alone the twentieth! We were just in time to help celebrate E. C. H. S. 's 20th Anniversary. Even Prime Minister Trudeau paid us a visit.

All this meant no exceptions though, there were still the trials and tribulations of the first big week, and to attend the first Eastglen dance for the year, well . . . I think some "rookies" found out they couldn't do quite what they thought they could. But this was just the beginning of fun and friends, activities, teams, clubs, and councils. There was always something more to do - houseleagues, sock-hops, contests, yearplays, and lits!

As the year progressed, the Senior Girls' Volleyball team brought the Provincial championship trophy home to us, as well, the Junior Girls' Basketball team were in the City Finals.

In no time at all it seemed, the year was drawing to a close; the '74 - '75 Students' Council was elected, registration for Grade XI, and final exams! What a year, what could be better, except maybe Grade XI?

After two months of what was supposed to be rest, we were ready to go again. There was a lot of excitement around that old school of ours when everybody got back together again. It wasn't just the same old thing this year, everything was better. Activities were continuously running: there was the Senior Football team that came pretty close to City's, the Senior Boys' Basketball team had a great time, some Water Polo team members made a trip to Hawaii, dances, yearplays, and more. From all the action, you'd think we might get a little run down. Well, some people thought the school was getting this way and a walk-out was organized for more money to renovate our school. Whether we did it, or something else, the money was received anyways, and E. C. H. S. was going to be improved! Again, school was rapidly ending for the year, but that was okay - there was still another year to look forward to.

Registration day, September 3, 1975, and the sudden realization that it was Grade XII already, and the last of our high school years. We were already being drilled with the question "What are your plans for when you've finished school?" But who cared then? We were interested in making 1975 - 76 a lot of good times, and that's exactly what we did. Through a lot of effort and hard work on many people's part, the Class of '76 was going to be the best ever.

The year got off to a good start with football games, and the guys on the team weren't the only ones to enjoy these! Last year's Seniors came close to City's, but that wasn't good enough - these Senior Blue Devils won City Finals. Football wasn't the only sport that we had winners in; both the Junior and Senior Girls' Volleyball teams took City's and the Seniors went on to the Provincials in Calgary for a whole bunch of fun times. As well as team sports, there were houseleagues, floor hockey, floor hockey, and more floor hockey. Ski trips were put on by the Ski Club and Phys. Ed. 30, who also went on a few memorable camping trips.

Meanwhile, back at the school, there was a lot of movement. Drama put on the Christmas Play as well as an excellent spring production: "You Can't Take it with you". Besides this, the Students' Union and Social Board were always around with pep rallies, sock-hops, dances, you name it, we had it! Would you believe The First Annual Eastglen Peanut Butter & Jam Invitational!

And last but not least, there was the Grad Class Council. All they did was have car washes, sell hats and T-shirts, have a Wake-a-thon, bazaars, put on Greaser Week, and a Variety Show. That's all. And what was this for? Our Grad, a reward for everybody, three unforgettable years celebrated on this one day. Our last year at Eastglen is over.

Throughout the three years, a lot of friends, both teachers and students alike, were coming and going. A lot of work was done, and many mistakes were made. But one realizes when looking back, nothing is really a waste of time, something is learned by every little experience. And just remember: Nothing lasts longer than a happy memory.

Thank-you Eastglen and Good-bye!
Kim Jago

CLASS PROPHECY

The stage was set at the Mayfield Inn and the Class of '76 let me do the Class Prophecy.

I poured my cold beer into my magical foretelling beer stein and plugged in my matching head phones. As the snow white foam cleared off the tempting liquid, I stared into the bottom of the mug through the bubbly. Well this is what I saw and heard for the future of our Grads.

Kennedy the roadrunner was picked up by Police as a Beeping Tom.

I saw Luba Eshenko open her own Ukrainian Tap Dance School, but it wasn't long before the school fell down the drain.

Football player Dwayne Dzuiba was rubbing noses with a walrus hoping one day he would make the Eskimos. All-round athlete Glenn Nelson turned down million dollar contracts from the Boston Bruins and the Boston Celtics so he could become a movie star. That's right - Glenn took the leading role in the movie "Curly Shirley".

Mr. Begoray thought he was going deaf, because he had a ring in his ear.

I saw Kim Jago happily married and the mother of one . . . dozen.

I saw that Susan Herder had her whole body tattooed with a map of the United States and I heard George Pappas and Keith Hitchcock singing "Oh Say Can We See?!"

Then I saw Eastglen completely dominate the staff in charge of World War III. Yes sir, Jeff Ilkow was named Social Convenor and the Mr. Congeniality Award for WW III was won by Geoff Thornell.

Bonnie Unland and Company buy the Crest Hotel and turn it into a Massage Parlor. That's right, the new establishment was named "Unland's Funland".

Our Principal becomes the leading actor in the movie "Sherlock Holmes' Dumber Brother".

I saw Pat Pisesky leaving the Londonderry Bar with a six pack . . . three broads under each arm.

I heard Barb Weidemann singing "I'm Looking Over A Four Leaf Clover".

Daria Luciw became the Editor of the Edmonton Daily which is distributed twice a year.

John Aitkens cased in his empty beer bottles and bought a Winnebago.

I heard Sam Hajar standing in downtown Ottawa singing "This Land IS My Land!".

I saw the Eastglen Graduating Class of '83 and Mike Lobreau was there.

I saw the Home Economics Teachers getting old, but that's okay because "Old teachers never die, they just lose class".

I heard Lyle Butchart on a T.V. Commercial saying, "July 15th, 1984, that's the day I started using soap."

I heard an Eastglen Staff meeting where they were discussing the vulgarity on Romper Room.

I saw Eddie Keen's number one Keen Commando Jamie Davis, and he uncovered the shocking news that the Santa Clause used in Woodward's every Christmas isn't the real St. Nick.

I saw the President of Women's Liberation Kim Borhen try to burn her bra in public, but it turned out to be a false alarm.

I heard disc jockey Daryl Grant dedicating songs from Gary Lakusta to the Rotunda Boys, songs like: "I Don't like to sleep alone" and "Don't Leave Me in the Morning".

Well, after the disgusting outlook for the Grads of the Class of '76, my beer went stale and so for now . . .

Take care and keep in touch.

Lloyd Meyer

VALEDICTORY

Doesn't it seem like just yesterday twelve years ago, we started our school life. We were led to our primary institution, and from there we progressed until we reached the plateau we are now at. It is like climbing a mountain, each step you take brings you closer to the top, closer to your own destiny. All of this turns our thoughts to those who have played an important part in our individual success.

Thank you teachers for your patience and guidance which has allowed us to understand and strive for our individual destiny. You gave us kind words of encouragement when we needed them and you assisted us in understanding ourselves.

Thank you parents for your generosity. You took care of our physical and mental needs. You guided us when we needed help. You understood us when we weren't really ourselves and you were always there when we needed you.

Most of all, thank you friends for the everlasting memories, from moments shared together. The good and bad times experienced together make life what it was. The friendship gained will never be forgotten.

Thank you again, all, for being what you are! I feel these words by Jim Croce best express the way each one of us feel toward everybody that has helped us in some way or another to be where we are.

"If I could save time in a bottle
The first thing that I'd like to do,
Is to save every day 'til eternity passes away,
Just to spend them with you.

If I could make days last forever
If words could make wishes come true,
I'd save everyday like a treasure
And then again I would spend them with you.

If I had a box just for wishes
And dreams that had never come true,
The box would be empty
Except for the memory of how they were answered by you.

ADVISOR'S MESSAGE

Blue and Gold '76 is a great credit to its diligent team of workers. We hope the students will treasure the memories within its pages, and are thankful to the students of Eastglen for providing us with such good material to work with. For those of us who have been closely involved with this year's Blue and Gold, 1976 has been truly one of the memorable times of our lives!

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

I am free again. The book is completed. No more deadlines, no more late nights and responsibility weighing me down like a sinking ship. Those were some thoughts exploding through my mind when the last section of the yearbook was ready to be mailed away. But the chains my staff and I bore throughout the year were not chains at all. It was freedom. The freedom for self expression; the freedom to learn and grow from the experiences and the responsibilities the yearbook gave each individual who became involved.

As editor, I am very proud of my staff who gave me support and encouragement when even the best Samaritan would have turned and walked away. They made the book what it is - THE BEST!

Least I forget the individuals in this school who made up, supported, or attended the activities which the book consists of. If not for ALL you people, there would be, in fact, no book. It was indeed a great team effort and it's nice to know that we have a winning team!!

Now that it's finished, did you know that "Work fascinates me - I can sit and look at it for hours!!"

ECHO

STAFF

Mrs. Starchuk, ECHO Advisor, and Daria Luciw, ECHO Editor.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Although participation was not the best, the ECHO, as a form of communication within the school, was successful. Through this journal, the student's ideas and suggestions were expressed, and that is needed to keep the student body together as one. Through the ECHO, and other activities throughout the year, we kept Eastglen what it is: The finest school on the North American Continent.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The staff of Blue and Gold '76 would like to express their sincere appreciation to a number of individuals, who have made special contributions to this yearbook:

To Mrs. Miller our advisor, for always helping and encouraging us, and for her understanding and willingness to help out whenever she could.

To Reid Felske our yearbook representative, who went above and beyond the call of duty, and was willing to come to our aid whenever we requested him to do so.

To Mrs. Crawford, for her strong character and concern for students. Whenever we were in a jam, she would give us as much assistance and drive as was necessary to carry the job through successfully.

To Mrs. Crawford's Work Experience class, for their last minute typing contribution to assist in meeting an important deadline.

To Mr. Abramowski, who helped out with some very tight deadlines by seeing to it that we got the pictures we needed, and did it because he had "desire".

To the boys in the darkroom, who took and produced the pictures we needed.

To the administration, who saw to it that we had room to produce the yearbook, and gave us financial backing.

To the ladies in the office, who gave us their undivided attention and service when called upon, and for their quick actions in times of emergency.

To Twyla Haberstock for giving us her time and typing skills for the last two crucial days at the end of the year.

To the people who contributed to the yearbook Creativity Contest with their ideas and artwork.

To our parents who put up with our late nights to produce this yearbook.

To the teachers whose understanding kept us going.

To the custodians, who put up with us after school hours, and who did not hesitate to offer us coffee on late nights throughout the year.

This book is the result of a lot of hard work and dedication, but if not for all of you, it could not have been done. To all of you, "THANKS!"
